

WELCOME TO POETRY OF RESISTANCE!

Poetry of Resistance is a project by Cais 1515 - Associação Cultural, in partnership with Eurosud, Globers and IRMI, co-financed by the European Commission under the CERV (Citizens, Equality, Rights and Values) program, which aims to promote European memory and the active participation of young people, through culture and the arts, in the role played by artistic resistance movements in combating the dictatorships of the 20th century.

We believe that preserving the memory of artistic resistance movements in Europe can be an effective and attractive way of involving young people in civic life, creating opportunities for new democratic achievements based on common European history.

This project is being implemented in Portugal with the support of the Esgueira Parish Council and the Esgueira School Group.

ABOUT CAIS 1515 - CULTURAL ASSOCIATION

Cais 1515 is a non-profit cultural association based in Aveiro. Its aim is to design and implement cultural and educational projects at local, national and European level.

Through the triad challenge - inform - entertain, it seeks to promote and preserve the cultural memory of the region in which it operates, through activities and initiatives in partnership with public and private entities.

ABOUT TRANSNATIONAL FORUM

This event will occur in Portugal at the end of the project, and will have a transnational dimension, counting with the participation of representatives of the partner organizations and young participants (5 per country), as well as stakeholders, professionals, civil society representatives and youngsters from Portugal.

It will have place in May, in order to integrate the celebrations of the 50th anniversary of the Portuguese revolution that brought back democracy into this country and the Europe Day (9th of may).

The 25th April Revolution will serve as a motto to foster de international debate on the importance of resistance and remembrance for the preservation of European democracies, as well as the role of the new generations in this process. The event will also serve to present and disseminate the project's results.

Our general objectives are:

- Create key moments to develop knowledge and awareness of the importance of preserving the European memory and promoting knowledge about resistance movements in general population, young people, relevant professionals and stakeholders in the youth area;
- Celebrate the historical moments with the involvement of younger generations;
- Foster interculturality, diversity, European shared values and past;
- Raise awareness among general population, young people, relevant professionals and stakeholders of the links between the past, the present and the future, promoting their active participation in the development of an egalitarian, democratic and inclusive Europe.
